

Electric Vehicle Energy Taskforce Report launch

AGENDA

14:30	Welcome and introduction Philip New, Chair, EV Energy Taskforce and Chief Executive, Energy Systems Catapult
14:35	Keynote address: Government perspective George Freeman MP, Minister of State, Department for Transport
Electric Vehicle Energy Taskforce
14:45	EV Energy Taskforce's role and purpose (including Taskforce launch video) Philip New, Chair, EV Energy Taskforce
14:55	The issues addressed Andy Eastlake, Managing Director, LowCVP
The proposals
15:05	Delivering consumer benefits through interoperability Howard Porter, Chief Executive, BEAMA
15:15	Rewarding consumers for charging smartly Sam Hollister, Director of Economics and Corporate Services, EnergyUK
15:25	Utilising and protecting data for better consumer outcomes Randolph Brazier, Head of Innovation and Development, Energy Networks Association
15:35	Winning consumers' trust and confidence Jillian Anable, Professor of Transport and Energy, ITS, University of Leeds
15:45	Developing and maintaining infrastructure needed by consumers Richard Halsey, Capabilities Director, Energy Systems Catapult
15:55	Panel Q & A
16:15	Coffee break (Marble Hall)
Turning proposals into action
16:45	Panel debate Chaired by: Roger Harrabin, Energy and Environment Analyst, BBC With: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Peter Stephens, Head of UK External & Government Affairs, Nissan• Fintan Slye, Chair of the Board, National Grid ESO• Jack Cousens, Head of Roads Policy, The AA• Fiona Howarth, Chief Executive, Octopus EV• Christina Calderato, Head of Delivery Planning, Transport for London• Ian Cameron, Head of Innovation, UK Power Networks
17:40	The next steps Philip New, Chair, EV Energy Taskforce
17:50	Closing comments Andy Eastlake, Managing Director, LowCVP
18:00	Reception (Elizabethan Library)